

Some Household Goods and Personal Effects are Classified as

Dangerous Goods

These commodities cannot be accepted for transport...

There are however, some exceptions to the act. Please discuss your requirements with our representative.

The following items are listed as:-

DANGEROUS GOODS!

Division A

Toxins and Poisons; eg. Pesticides, Weed Killer, Polishes and Arsenic.

Division B

Flammable Gases; eg. Oxygen, Acetylene, Chlorine Gas and Methane.

Division C (see exceptions)

Firearms; eg. Military Weapons, Fully Automatic Weapons and Hand Guns.

Division D

Flammable Liquids; eg. Petrol, Kerosine, Paints, Varnish, Turpentine, Methylated Spirits, Pure Alcohol, Photographic Developer and Oils.

Division E

Radioactive Materials.

Division F

Corrosives; eg. Oxides, Mercury and Caustic.

Division G

Explosives; eg. Ammunition, Flares, Fireworks and Black Powder.

Division H (see exceptions)

Miscellaneous; eg. Scuba Tanks, Gas Cylinders, Aerosol Cans, Matches, Butane Lighters, Irritants, Life Rafts, Pressurised Vessels and Explosive Devices.

EXCEPTIONS

1. a Hunting and sporting rifles (including ex-military, non-automatic).
- b Hand guns, where copy of current registration is produced.
- c Air rifles.
- d Replicas (non firing).

Note; Weapons falling into division 1a & 1b above, will only be accepted, where firing mechanisms have been dismantled and removed. Weapons must not contain live ammunition.

2. a Scuba tanks may be accepted, providing they are completely empty and valves are either in the full open position or removed entirely.